We strive to make sailing as safe as possible through really good education and supervision on shore and on the water. We cannot remove all possible point of harm. Someone could trip on the way down to the dock. We plan and strive to keep everyone injury free. We like sailing a lot and work really hard to see that everyone we introduce to sailing also has a great time sailing with us.

In consideration of the Glenmore Sailing Club allowing me to participate in the Girl Guides Introduction to Sailing program, I hereby release the host venue, the Glenmore Sailing Club, and their respective officers, directors, members, employees, any volunteers, and other participants from any claims of causes of action that may arise as a result of my participation. This includes demands in respect to death, injury, loss or damage to me or my property, however caused, arising out of or in connection with my taking part in this course notwithstanding that the same may have been contributed to or caused or occasioned by the negligence of the same bodies or their agents, officials, servants, or representatives. I acknowledge that in participating in this course I may be subjected to risks of injury of every nature. In the event that I or anyone on my behalf should attempt to pursue any claim against any of the released parties, I hereby agree to hold harmless and to indemnify such parties from any and all claims that may be brought against them including actual attorney's fees or costs that may be incurred in defending such claims. I accept responsibility to determine I should be participating. I also agree that I am bound by the rules, which may govern my participation in this event. This release, hold harmless, and indemnity agreement is intended by me to be without exception. It applies to any and all claims that might arise under any theory of liability.
